CHAPTER #87 COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA Recent Happenings You Need to Know

CHAPTER #87
COLUMBIA,
SOUTH CAROLINA
Recent Happenings You
Need to Know

Don't miss our next chapter meeting on February 8, 2019, at Seawell's at 1125 Rosewood Drive in Columbia directly across from the main entrance to the South Carolina fairgrounds. Doors open at 11:00 am so come early. A complete lunch buffet costs $14.00 payable at the door. A reservation is not required.

Our speaker will be Jill Reid — Basic Life Support Instructor. More about Jill follows:

She is the founder of TrueHeart Support and serves as a Basic Life Support (BLS) instructor, teaching health care professionals how to help revive, resuscitate, or sustain persons experiencing cardiac arrest or respiratory failure of some sort.

She has been a Palmetto Health (now Prisma Health) team member since 2004, spending 11 years working in Medical Education as a financial specialist. In her role, she provided continuing education to the USC and Medical Education administrative staff and, in 2015, she joined Palmetto Health/USC SOM Simulator Center.

Jill is originally from Asheville, North Carolina, where she will always call home. She majored in accounting at the University of South Carolina and enjoys reading, horseback riding, dancing, and fencing in her spare time.
